

Categories Include: Cabbage • Melon • Squash • Tomatoes • Beets

Winners decided by weight (pounds and ounces).

Tiebreakers will be made by length, width, circumference, and appearance.

All decisions by the judges are final.

RULES

- 1) Fill out the registration blank below and place in the registration box at 5 Oaks Garden Center on Highway 129 in Batesville.
- 2) Plant your seeds or vegetable plant.
- 3) Try to grow outstanding melons, beets, tomatoes, squash, cucumbers, and potatoes. Any variety may be used in growing your vegetables. 5 Oaks Garden Center recommends the use of Ferti•Lome Blooming & Rooting Fertilizer to increase your chances of winning one of the categories.
- 4) One entry per person, per week.
- 5) Anyone over two years of age is eligible to participate.
- 6) All fully grown vegetables must be brought to 5 Oaks Garden Center on Highway 129 in Batesville, IN by 4pm on Friday of each week.
- 7) One winner in each category of cabbage, melons, squash, tomatoes, and beets will be announced at the end of the contest held Wednesday, October 18, 2023 between 11am-Noon. WRBI will be broadcasting live from 5 Oaks Garden Center.
- 8) Winners will have their picture taken and will win various prizes from 5 Oaks Garden Center and WRBI. Photos will be posted to WRBIRadio.com.
- 9) Employees and immediate families of WRBI and 5 Oaks Garden Center are not eligible. All decisions of the judges are final. For official contest rules, visit WRBIRadio.com.

5 Oaks Garden Center's Prize-Winning Fruit & Vegetable Contest

Name _____

Home Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Home Phone _____ Work Phone _____